

I've been talking to your kids... about bullying.

Actually, I've been talking to your kids about many things. Cartoon Network, Marvel Comics, the U.S. Justice Department and many others hire me to do so. Over the past 15 years I have surveyed and interviewed over 100,000 children and adolescents. Recently, we have been talking a lot about bullying.

My name is Brad Snyder, and I am an expert on the behaviors and preferences of children and adolescent. I also am a parent of an ISA student, and I would like to share with you what I've learned about bullying and our children.

I WILL PRESENT THEORY, STATISTICS AND ANECDOTES THAT COVER:

- ▶ WHAT BULLYING IS
- ▶ WHAT MAKES IT DIFFERENT FROM TYPICAL BEHAVIOR
- ▶ HOW YOU CAN RECOGNIZE IT
- ▶ WHAT IT MEANS FOR BULLIES AND THOSE BEING BULLIED

In addition, I will be answering your questions and offering tips and tricks for addressing bullying at school and in your community.

I hope parents, educators and anyone else concerned about young people will join me.
